

2011 CAOA Baseball Umpire Clinic October 8-9 At DeWitt High School

The CAOA Umpire Clinic is a two day event in conjunction with the Lansing Area Summer Baseball League. Day One of the clinic will incorporate cage work, field situations, rules and mechanics study and philosophy discussions. On Day Two of the clinic, campers will work actual games while being observed and evaluated by Camp Clinicians.

The CAOA Umpire Clinic is directed by Jeff Spedoske. Jeff umpired for nine years in professional baseball including three at the AAA level and two seasons in the Dominican Winter League. The rest of the camp staff is comprised of umpires who have worked highest levels of both professional and NCAA baseball. The CAOA Umpire Camp Staff is intent on offering the best in instruction and feedback.

Staff members scheduled to appear include Mike Conlin (NCAA World Series Umpire), Dave Buck (AAA and NCAA World Series Umpire), Adam Hamari (AAA Umpire), Mark Uyl (NCAA Post Season Umpire), Nick Nolde (AAA Umpire), Mark Ditsworth (NCAA World Series Umpire), Andy Joseph (NCAA Umpire and MHSAA Finals Umpire), along with other accomplished umpires.
