FINALS GAME NOTES — Both teams struggled in the shooting department, with Marian hitting only 22 percent from the floor, Northwestern 17. The two teams went scoreless for the last 5:13 of the first half, and Marian didn’t score in the third quarter until a Northwestern rally from a 10-point deficit tied the game at 22-22. Then the winners broke a deadlock at 24-24 with a six-point run, and scored 13 of their final 15 points from the free-throw line in the lowest-scoring finale in MHSAA girls basketball history. It was Marian’s second state championship.
