

NOTE - When saying the MHSAA acronym, say each letter – M – H – S – A – A.
Do not say M-H-S-Double A or try to say MHSAA as a word.

A continued point of emphasis by the NFHS and the MHSAA reminds public address announcers to keep to a minimum announcements during live ball situations; and to reinforce the fact that in educational athletics, the public address announcer is there to inform – not to entertain.

To that end, treat both teams the same in every game – especially when the host team is playing. Say who made the basket without any additional fanfare; don't announce the time remaining or the score (people can see the scoreboard); don't announce what the official has signaled; or who takes possession when the ball goes out of bounds.

Keep it simple. Don't editorialize or cheerlead. Stick to the script.

A sheet with best practices for basketball announcers is included with these scripts.

Best Practices

Basketball Public Address Announcers

(Adapted from NASPAA/MHSAA Clinic – 1/6/18)

Player Introductions

- Follow the MHSAA script which alternates teams with each player introduced
- Position, height, grade, jersey number, then player's name.
- "At forward, a 5-10 junior, number 34, Bradley Charles."
- Give first and last names only - never nicknames.

The only live ball announcement allowed is for baskets scored

- When announcing a basket your goal is to finish before the ball gets back to near free throw line. – "Basket by 33 – Jane Smith."
- If basket is a three-point goal, add that fact, but with same inflection – "Three point basket for 33 – Jane Smith."
- No assists.

Fouls & Free Throws

- Never announce who the foul is on until the official informs the scorekeeper.
- Announce who the foul is on by name, jersey number and name of team or mascot.
- Always mention the number of personal fouls and the number of team fouls until double bonus is reached.
- Indicate if the shooter is to receive two free throws or one.
- CEASE ANNOUNCING once shooter is handed the ball.

Technical Fouls

- Player Technical Fouls: Announce: "Technical Foul, (Team Name) #10, Joe Smith, his _____ foul, team _____" (if not in double bonus).
- Coach Technical Fouls: "Technical foul, (Team Name) bench, the team's _____ foul."

Time Outs

- Wait for the signal from the official for the length of the time out called.
- "Time Out – (Nickname or School Name) – This is a 30-second time out."
- "Time Out – (Nickname or School Name) – This is a full time out."
- "Official's Time Out."
- At end of quarter – "The end of the First Quarter." (Except at end of game – give final score)

Points of Emphasis

- Do not talk over live play except to finish announcing who made the basket.
- Do not announce violations, change of possession on out-of-bounds, time remaining.
- Never talk when the free throw shooter has their hands on the ball.
