MULTI-SPORT PARTICIPATION

Here are 5 good reasons for high school multi-sport participation: Fewer overuse injuries; less opportunity for emotional burnout; exposure to different kids and coaches; exposure to different roles; and learning to compete better. Being a multi-sport participant can help a kid become a more well-rounded person. Multi-sport participation is cross training for life. To learn more about multi-sport participation, visit the health and safety page of the MHSAA website.
