Let The Games Begin!

School sports - educational athletics - are based on four things: Sportsmanship - Scholarship - Safety - Scope. Without Sportsmanship, schools can't justify being in the sports business. Scholarship in the classroom - not athletic scholarships to college, comes before everything. Safety is part of everything we do; from playing rules and equipment to lengths of seasons. And having a sane Scope, a sane perspective that keeps our games local and educational, completes this picture. School sports are different - and better than sports for our young people than programs by many other sponsors - because Sportsmanship, Scholarship, Safety and Scope guide our efforts. —

Mark Uyl , MHSAA Executive Director
