High School Attended-Year Graduated:	Mason HS 2002
College Attended-Year Graduated:	Siena Heights University 2006
Additional Education:
Athletic/Coaching Background:	After graduating from Siena with a Bachelor's degree in Sport Management, Tyrrell went on to work full-time for 12 years in Minor League baseball where he continued to study and manage the sport he loves on the field and at the corporate level. In 2017, Tyrrell was hired as the Assistant Varsity Baseball Coach at Mason High School where he helped coach the 2018 team to its fourth ever conference title. Following Tyrrell's first year as an Assistant he was hired as the Head Varsity Baseball Coach in 2018. In his first year at the helm, Tyrrell lead the Bulldogs to its fifth ever conference title, its first ever Diamond Classic final, a top five state rank and a 26-6 record which would end up being tied for the best record in school history. Following the 2019 season, Tyrrell was named by the Lansing State Journal as Mid-

	Michigan’s High School Baseball Coach of the year. Until this year, 2023 marks Tyrrell’s greatest accomplishment as a coach, where his team won the first ever Baseball District title in school history. Tyrrell was voted All-District Coach of the year following the 2023 season. In 2024, Tyrrell led the Bulldogs to his second League Title as Head Coach and baseball’s 6th ever conference title in school history. This year, Tyrrell captured his 100th win in early April and has a 31-6 record (best record in school history) as the Bulldogs approach the Division 2 State Semifinal. He led the Bulldogs to it’s 7th ever league title, 2nd ever District title and 1st ever Regional title. This will be Mason’s first appearance in the baseball state semifinal in school history. In six seasons, Tyrrell is 128–65-2.
