High School Attended-Year Graduated:	Allen Park 2016
College Attended-Year Graduated:	Wayne State 2021
Additional Education:	Masters Degree - Curriculum & Instruction
Athletic/Coaching Background:	I am a graduate of Wayne State University with my Bachelor's degree in Secondary Education, as well as a graduate with my masters degree in curriculum and instruction from Western Governors University. I am currently a high school English teacher &amp; yearbook advisor at Carlson High School. In high school, I cheered at Divine Child from 2012-2014 and at Allen Park High School from 2015-2016. After graduating in 2016, I cheered for Grand Valley State University, travelled to NCA nationals and received a 2nd place finish at NCA Finals. In 2017 I transferred to Wayne State University and joined their collegiate team. While at WSU, we received a game-day run off win, a silver paid bid to NCA nationals, a gold paid bid to NCA nationals, our very first finals appearance, and the first national runner-up title in Wayne State history. I was a 5-year student athlete at the collegiate level, and coached one year at Wayne State university as well. Throughout my college career, I was also a 4-year staff member at Champion Cheerleading. At Champion, I worked with thousands of athletes each summer to develop their teamwork, skill set and passion for the sport of cheerleading. I have worked closely with coaches across the state of Michigan at the high school and collegiate level. From 2017-2021 I was an assistant coach at Plymouth High School. In those 4 years at PHS, the team received their very first District title, followed by 2 additional district titles, 3 city championships, 3 KLAA division titles, 1 KLAA conference title, 2 regional runner-up titles, runner up at their very first MHSAA D1 state finals appearance in 2020 and 3rd place at state finals in 2021. In 2021, I took over the Carlson cheerleading program. Since being the head coach at Carlson, the program has earned a 2 Downriver league titles, 3 district titles, a state runner up title and a state title.

	I am a 8 year member of CCCAM and the secretary on the CCCAM executive board. In 2023, I also received the honor of district coach of the year.

Additional Education:	Completed Master's Degree in Curriculum Development and Instructional Differentiation, emphasis in Cultural Diversity and Urban Education 2017. Currently the Assistant Principal at Muskegon High School in Muskegon, MI
Athletic/Coaching Background:	I am honored to coach at Reeths-Puffer High School, where I cheered for 4 years and graduated in 1999, just as competitive cheer emerged in the midwest Michigan area. I have had the privilege of coaching two of my daughters on the RPVC teams, one of which is a junior this year. I have volunteered and coached for 25 years, 21 of which have been at the Varsity level. Achieving three consecutive District Champion titles and qualifying for State Finals three times has been a privilege unlike any other. As a former teacher, and now administrator, I honor and appreciate the unique transformation and empowerment that young women can only receive from this captivating and challenging sport. Alongside amazing coaches at all levels, dedicated, loving families, and emphatic support from RP Athletics, the RP Cheer program and community continue to thrive and grow. Thank you, RP, for believing in RPVC!
