FINAL GAME NOTES: Bishop Foley prevailed for the second straight year in this finals rematch. Foley won its fifth title in its seventh final appearance. Gull Lake was looking for its second crown in four trips to the championship game. Foley's Rasch, a four-year starter in the B-C-D final game, scored the first goal of the contest on a header. After Gull Lake tied the score on Ouelette's goal, Delaney put the Ventures up to stay, scoring off a throw-in. Gull Lake missed a penalty kick in the second half, which was followed by an insurance goal for Bishop Foley when a shot by Young deflected off a Gull Lake defender into the net. Hammer scored for Gull Lake less than a minute later, but Foley's Clashman came up with two big saves in the closing moments to preserve the victory.
