2026 MHSAA GIRLS VOLLEYBALL FINALS

NOVEMBER 19-21

Welcome

Welcome to the MHSAA Championships! This is a classroom like no other, and now is the time for the final exam. Like the academic classroom, some have had good fortune and smooth sailing along the way in getting here while others have overcome adversity during the season. Even today, a good bounce or a bad bounce will occur.

Your athletic skills are put to the test, but more importantly, your discipline will be challenged, as well. The knack for making the right move at the right moment is often the difference between winning and coming up just short.

Discipline also means testing your self-control and people skills. To embrace our diverse opponents as equals, and to employ common decency – every – single – moment. Win or lose.

That's the beauty of educational athletics. The takeaways today are not the trophies and medals, but the life lessons learned and applied over years of sports.

Recently, the MHSAA celebrated its 100th year. As we begin the second century of school sports in Michigan, let's remember and be thankful for the efforts of all those who have made this Final tournament experience so special.

Congratulations for reaching the end of the tournament road. Good luck to all!

Kingsley Settles in to Take 1st Crown

For a set and a half in the 2025 Division 3 Volleyball Final, it was clear Kalamazoo Christian was the team with a championship experience edge in the match against Kingsley.

The Comets were playing at Kellogg Arena for the fourth straight year, having won a title in 2023, finishing runner-up in 2022 and reaching the Semifinals in 2024.

But apparently that set and a half was all the time Kingsley needed to become comfortable in the moment, as the Stags rallied for a 22-25, 26-24, 25-15, 25-12 victory, claiming the program's first title.

"We got hammered the first game, just didn't play well," Kingsley coach Dave Hall said. "Just error after error, tight, and just out of nowhere they find it in them. In the second set we were down again, set point, and somehow they find a way to score a point and tie it. We've been in 25 of those this year, and have probably won 23 of them. They just don't get rattled. I'm chewing my fingernails off and can't look half the time, and they just play volleyball. It's amazing."

Hall's illustrious career has spanned nearly three decades at Kingsley, as he's won 1,230 matches in his 27 years with the program.

It was the second time he had taken a team to the final day of the season, with the previous for the Class C Final in 2004.

"Our motto has been one more day, one more day, just try to get to the end of the season. I said, 'We're going to play the last point of the volleyball season in the state of Michigan today, and it's going to be match point and we're going to win this thing.' Thank goodness it worked out that way," Hall said.

It didn't look that way early, as Kalamazoo Christian led from 4-3 on in the first set to take early control of the match. It then weathered a fast Kingsley start to the second before going up 24-22 with a chance to take complete command.

"I think we were playing really loose," Comets coach Carlie Southland said. "Having a lot of fun and playing really disciplined in our passing, blocking and serving."

Kingsley (57-4-1) would win the next four points, however, and never let go of the momentum, as Kalamazoo Christian (30-12-3) would never have another lead in the match.

"I think we were just kind of nervous at the start," Kingsley senior setter Sarah Wooer said. "Then in the second set we realized that we were really in it, we just had to play hard. Once we realized that we were doing well and we could win, we just kept playing hard and we were able to pull it off."

Jenna Middleton led the way with 19 kills in the Final for Kingsley.

The lone glimmer of hope for Kalamazoo Christian came late in the third set, when it cut a 15-7 Kingsley lead down to 16-11. But a wild rally that included diving saves from Wooer, Isabelle Seitz and Aizlyn McKinley ended with a Jenna Middleton kill, and Kingsley rolled from there.

The play was a great representation of how the Stags played throughout much of the match.

Seitz led Kingsley with 28 digs, while Aizlyn McKinley had 22, Middleton had 15 and Ariyah McKinley had 14.

Wooer finished with 48 assists on the day, with Middleton coming in at 19 kills, Aizlyn McKinley at 15 and Delaney Case at 12.

Country Day's Elise Hiemstra

Hockey Weekly Action Photos

D2: Country Day Repeats in Second Trip to Finals

Elise Hiemstra's final swing in a Detroit Country Day uniform was the perfect way to end her high school volleyball career. The senior outside hitter took a well-placed set from sophomore Payton Woodruff and spiked it through the Flat Rock defense onto the floor at Kellogg Arena.

Her 21st kill of the day closed out a 25-18, 25-19, 25-12 sweep for the Yellowjackets in the Division 2 Final, and back-to-back Finals titles. Woodruff had 35 assists in the match, spreading them out to seven attackers.

"I just really wanted Payton to get me the ball," Hiemstra said. "I just really wanted to go out the best I possibly could."

It marked just the second time Country Day had even made the Semifinals, but the Yellowjackets (29-9) looked like seasoned veterans, clinically putting away Flat Rock in a dominant performance.

"Our goal today was just to kind of come in and take care of business," Country Day coach Kim Lockhart said. "Go back to the basics, serve tough, pass the ball. Just go out there and do our thing, and I think that's what we did."

Meanwhile, the nerves and inexperience might have been a factor for Flat Rock, as the Rams (39-9) were making their first appearance at Kellogg Arena.

"I feel like the pressure, this was our first time even making it here, and I feel like we were just not used to that," Flat Rock junior Sarah Giroux said.

While Woodruff was spreading the wealth, Hiemstra was her favorite target, and for good reason, as she became Country Day's all-time leader in kills, both for a career and season, during the championship match.

Demi McCoy led the Country Day back line with 14 digs Saturday, while Hiemstra added nine. Aliyah Potapenko had nine kills for the Yellowjackets, and Woodruff added four aces.

Fowler Chat Turns to Champions

The Fowler volleyball team called its shot in January, naming its group chat "State Champs."

Behind the leadership of nine seniors, the Eagles made it happen 11 months later, claiming the school's first MHSAA volleyball title with a 30-28, 25-19, 25-22 sweep of Mendon in the 2025 Division 4 championship match at Kellogg Arena.

"I think we've known the whole time that if we stick with it and we push each other, that we could do good things," senior middle hitter Josie Simon said. "We knew what we were chasing."

Last year's Finals appearance was just the second in school history for Fowler, and first since 2017. That year, Simon and her classmates were fourth-graders, and several of them were at Kellogg Arena watching.

The following year, their own journey began.

"I'm super thrilled for them, and they literally have been talking about this since they were in the fifth grade when they started playing volleyball," Fowler coach Patty Feldpausch said. "They believed it, and that's why we're sitting at this table as the champions."

While they'd rather not wait another eight years, the Eagles know they could have sparked that same drive and belief in a group of girls watching them.

"Making history and showing little kids that it's possible – it's hard – but we did it and they can do it," senior Myah Pohl said. "For the kids who we waved at, and they supported us – they can do it, too."

Those kids witnessed an incredible team effort that led to a title, as the Eagles had 10 players record a dig, and five add at least seven kills to the attack.

At the heart of that were a trio of seniors, as Paige Thelen had 21 kills, Rachel Wirth had 21 digs and Neelah O'Rourke had 48 assists.

Neelah O'Rourke distributed a record-number of assists to lead the Fowler attack.

Hockey Weekly Action Photos

Fittingly, that trio combined for the final dig, assist and kill of the game, as Thelen pounded home an O'Rourke set, which came off a Wirth pass, for match point.

O'Rourke's 48 assists are the most in a three-set Finals match since the move to divisions in 2018.

"She's the only player I hugged – we got rushed around," Feldpausch said with a laugh. "She just did a great job today. Our defense was giving her good balls to feed and our hitters did a great job against their big block. Neelah just kept her composure. She was amazing, she did great."

Skylar Fowler was a big part of that attack as well, recording 10 kills, while Pohl had nine, Elizabeth Wirth had eight and Simon had seven. Selena Stump had 13 digs for the Eagles (36-8-2), with O'Rourke adding 12 and Thelen 11.

Most of the drama in the match came during the first set, as it took 30 points to settle it. While each point was tense, the final point featured a long back and forth that ended with a block from Simon and Stump.

"It's tough to lose an opening set like that," Mendon coach Kenneth Herbert said. "We've said it all season long, that we're never out of a match. Even though we lost that first set, we felt from that moment we could still battle. And even to the last point, I felt that we were still battling. That's all I can ask for out of these girls."

Cienna Nightingale led the Mendon attack with 14 kills, adding 12 digs, while Gracie Shultz had nine kills and 19 digs. Karyssa Holtz had 24 assists for the Hornets (38-7-1), while Jadyn Samson had 20 digs.

"Good for them, they found our weaknesses and found ways to shut us down," Schultz said. "We played as well as we could. I wouldn't have done anything different. We gave everything on the court."

D1: Mercy Celebrates Block Party in Title Clincher

Farmington Hills Mercy looked to be on its way to a sweep in the 2025 Division 1 Volleyball Final at Kellogg Arena.

So when Bloomfield Hills erased a nine-point deficit in the third set, extending the match and delaying the celebration, the Marlins were on the wrong side of a massive momentum swing.

They were also incredibly calm.

"I feel like our message was not to worry," Mercy senior Ella Andrews said. "We were down in the Semifinals two sets and came back and reverse swept them, so I feel like our message was just to stay calm."

Mercy got back to its game in the fourth set, and put itself back on top of the state with a 25-18, 25-20, 23-25, 25-20 victory against Bloomfield Hills.

The win gives the Marlins their third Finals title and second in three years.

Mercy entered the fourth Final in program history with a simple, yet difficult gameplan: Slow Bloomfield Hills star Kayla Nwabueze. The Harvard-bound outside hitter did manage a match-high 24 kills, but the Marlins' long, talented front line made it as difficult on her as possible. Nwabueze got some backup from sophomore Allison Stakoe, who had 20 kills and played a massive role in the third set comeback, but Mercy's blocking offset the duo.

McKenzie and Ella Andrews led the way on that block, with Ella finishing the match with two solo blocks and five assists, and McKenzie tallying six block assists. They had a ton of help, too. Kaelyn Easton had five block assists, Saniya Tucker had four, and both Cree Hollier and Kate Kalczynski had two.

Mercy's attack was just as varied.

Kalczynski led the way with 16 kills, including the final one on match point, while Ella Andrews had 13, Hollier had 12 and McKenzie Andrews had seven.

Protecting What Makes High School Sports Different

In a changing sports landscape, one question matters more than ever: What do we want high school sports to be?

College athletics is having a national conversation about its future and what it wants to become. Those debates are a good reminder that high school sports are unlike any other level of athletics, and that distinction is worth protecting.

The scoreboard matters, but the purpose of education-based athletics and activities extends far beyond wins and losses. High school athletics gives students the opportunity to compete, grow, learn valuable life lessons and develop the character and skills that will prepare them for success long after their playing days are over.

In a time when many Americans feel increasingly disconnected from one another, schools remain places where people come together.

Change is inevitable, and high school athletics must continue to evolve to meet the needs of today's students. But as the landscape changes, we must make sure the experience remains recognizable for what it has always been: designed to serve high school students as a supplement to the educational experience.

That responsibility becomes even more important as outside forces continue to shape the sports landscape, and leaders in high school athletics have an opportunity to be intentional about preserving the distinct identity of high school sports.

That is where the 51 NFHS-member state high school athletics and activities associations play such an important role.

Across the country, these state associations work every day to create opportunities for students to participate while establishing the guardrails necessary to protect student-athletes and their schools.

Those guardrails are not restrictions; they are protections designed to promote competitive equity, establish consistent eligibility standards, protect the well-being of students and keep athletics connected to the educational mission of schools.

The decisions being made at the collegiate level today could shape expectations for athletics at every level tomorrow, and the best time to decide what high school athletics should be is now – before someone else makes that decision.

High school athletics is more than a collection of games and competitions. Every week during the school year, thousands of communities across the country come together around high school athletics and activities. In a time when many Americans feel increasingly disconnected from one another, schools remain places where people come together.

A Friday night football game, a basketball tournament, a state championship, a concert or a theater performance can bring students, families, educators and entire communities together around a shared experience.

That is the power of education-based athletics and activities. They not only benefit the participants, but society as well, and it's why protecting the purpose of high school sports matters and why the work of our 51-member state associations matters.

The NFHS will continue to support our state associations as they work to ensure that students across the country have meaningful opportunities to play, perform and compete – together.

Sports will continue to change, and it's our responsibility to ensure that, through that change, high school athletics remains true to its purpose and focuses on the students it serves.

NFHS Executive Director

Scholar-Athlete Award in 38th Year Awarding Scholarships to Students

Thousands of students voluntarily extend their classroom day by taking part in extracurricular activities, often improving their academic achievements in the process. The value that such programs play in the total education of a high school student is highlighted through the MHSAA/Farm Bureau Insurance Scholar-Athlete Award, which will award $2,000 scholarships to 32 top student-athletes and recognize over 2,000 other outstanding individuals in 2026-27.

Underwritten by Farm Bureau Insurance, the Scholar-Athlete Award is now in its 38th year, and presents scholarships to students in every MHSAA enrollment classification. The scholarships may be used at any institution of higher learning.

"It is amazing to see the number of young people who are proven achievers in academics and activities," said Mark Uyl, executive director of the MHSAA. "At a time when our educational system is coming under fire, the Scholar-Athlete Award is something that proves how important athletics are to the development of a well-rounded person."

Students applying for the Scholar-Athlete Award must be graduating during the 2026-27 school year, carry a 3.5 grade-point average, and have previously won a letter in a varsity sport that the MHSAA sponsors postseason competition.

Applicants will also be required to show involvement in other school/community activities and submit an essay on the importance of sportsmanship in educational athletics.

Application materials can be found on MHSAA.com. Scan the QR code to access the page.

Each MHSAA member school is allowed to nominate a number of student-athletes based on the size of the school. Class A schools can nominate six boys and six girls, Class B four boys and four girls, Class C three boys and three girls and Class D two boys and two girls. The first 30 scholarships will be awarded based on this graduated scale, with two additional scholarships intended for minority applicants.

FARM BUREAU INSURANCE®
Michigan's Insurance Company

A committee composed of school administrators from across the state will select regional and statewide winners.

Farm Bureau Insurance, a long-time supporter of MHSAA activities, also sponsors other educationally oriented programs.

The 32 scholarship recipients will be recognized at the MHSAA Boys Basketball Finals at the Breslin Student Events Center in East Lansing in March 2027.

The annual MHSAA Scholar-Athlete ceremony is one of the highlights of the winter season. More information about the awards may be obtained by contacting your local school principal, athletic director or guidance counselor. The online application form can be found at MHSAA.com/scholarship.

Student Advisory Council Aids MHSAA

Eight student-athletes who will be juniors at their schools during the 2026-27 academic year have been selected to serve two-year terms on the Michigan High School Athletic Association's Student Advisory Council.

The Student Advisory Council is a 16-member group which provides feedback on issues impacting educational athletics from a student's perspective, and also is involved in the operation of MHSAA championship events and other programming. Members of the Student Advisory Council serve for two years, beginning as juniors. Eight new members are selected annually to serve on the SAC, with nominations made by MHSAA member schools. The incoming juniors will join the group of eight seniors-to-be appointed a year ago.

Selected to begin serving on the Student Advisory Council in 2026-27 are Addi Diepenbrock, Ada Forest Hills Eastern; Avery Edwards, Kingsford; Maci Godfrey, Hudson; Karly Grant, St Ignace; Liam Arnold, Macomb Dakota; Kyle Hunter, Detroit Voyageur College Prep; Rahul Prasanna, Novi; and Eli Wolters, Holland.

Those eight new members were selected from 127 applicants, the second-largest group of applicants during the 20 years of the council. The first Student Advisory Council was formed for the 2006-07 school year. With the addition of this class beginning this summer, members will have represented 155 schools from 53 leagues plus independent schools that do not play in a league. Combined, the new appointees have participated in 12 MHSAA sports, and six will be the first SAC members from their respective schools.

The Student Advisory Council generally meets eight times each school year, and once more for a 24-hour leadership camp. In addition to assisting in the promotion of the educational value of interscholastic athletics, the Council discusses issues dealing with the 4 S's of educational athletics: scholarship, sportsmanship, safety (including health and nutrition) and the sensible scope of athletic programs. There also is a fifth S discussed by the group – student leadership.

This school year, the Council handed out championship trophies at Finals events, led sessions during four Sportsmanship Summits, provided feedback to the MHSAA Representative Council on proposed rule changes, and provided behind-the-scenes social media coverage at MHSAA championship events. They also were featured in public service announcement videos broadcast throughout the last school year.

Student Advisory Council Belief Statement

As the voice of Michigan's student-athletes, the Student Advisory Council's role is to convey the message of how high school sports are supposed to be played. We are responsible for helping the MHSAA maintain a positive and healthy atmosphere in which interscholastic athletes can thrive.

We believe athletes should be competitive, sportsmanlike and excel academically. We believe students in the stands should have fun, but not take the focus away from the game. We believe coaches should act as teachers, helping student-athletes develop while still keeping high school sports in perspective. We believe that parents should always be positive role models and be supportive of their child's decisions. We believe officials commit their own time to high school sports and respect should always be shown and given to them.

The most important goal for student-athletes is to enjoy high school sports while keeping a high level of respect between all those involved in the games.

The new additions to the SAC will join the Class of 2027 members who were selected a year ago: Nichole James, Detroit Edison; Mia McGregor, Mio; Camryn Siegers, Holland Christian; Lucy Weber, Fenton; Brody Hammer, Middleville Thornapple Kellogg; Sam Bentley, Ypsilanti Lincoln; Mason Mireles, Hartford; and Joey Smokevitch, Johannesburg-Lewiston.

MHSAA Representative Council

The Representative Council of the Michigan High School Athletic Association is the body assembled to carry out the wishes of member schools. The Council meets several times annually to discuss and pass legislation concerning interscholastic athletics in Michigan.

The Representative Council is made up of 19 members, with all but five elected by a vote of MHSAA-member schools to represent different geographic regions, different sizes of schools, nonpublic schools, and junior and middle schools. Two members are elected to statewide at-large positions. Four members are appointed by the Council to facilitate representation of females and minorities, and the 19th position is occupied by the Superintendent of Public Instruction or his/her designee.

The officers and two other representatives form the MHSAA's Executive Committee, which meets on a monthly basis during the school year to review eligibility appeals and other current business.

For bringing concussions into focus, / Look to Michigan.

Headaches, dizziness, light sensitivity, difficulty concentrating? Concussion symptoms aren't always easy to see — and no two recoveries are alike.

That's why the University of Michigan Concussion Center is helping parents, coaches, and communities recognize possible signs and support young people with evidence-based care.

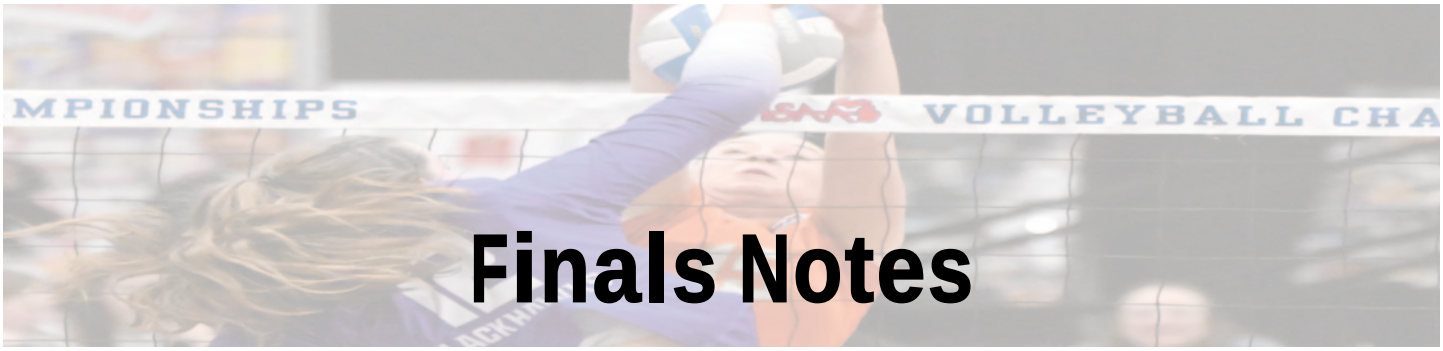

By bringing together research, clinical expertise, and community education, the center gives families trusted guidance — from the first signs of a concussion through a safe return to school, sports, and everyday life.

Finals Notes

Your Officials Today

Just as the participants on the teams at this year's Finals are realizing a dream of vying for top honors, another group of individuals are also reaching a goal for the hard work they have put in by being assigned to officiate the action.

Officials for MHSAA Finals are selected based on the recommendations and ratings by schools, as well as from input from local officials associations.

These officials believe that interscholastic athletics are truly educational in nature, and work to uphold that standard. Like the athletes in the Finals, officials come from all corners of Michigan.

Selected to work this year's Semifinals / Finals are: Kole Andrews, Flushing; Stephen Chupinsky, Clarkston; Vincent Gross, Brimley; Christopher Hermosillo, Harbor Springs; Warner Offord, Kalamazoo; Shannon Smith, Mt Morris; Theresa Shoop, Ludington; Ron Austin, West Bloomfield; Marcus Williams, Redford; Robert Wilson, Rockford.

Congratulations to this year's Final officials. If you are interested in becoming a registered game official in any sport, contact the MHSAA at 1661 Ramblewood Drive, East Lansing, MI 48823, or register online at mhsaa.com.

Behind The Scenes

The hallmark of a strong association is its ability to work together for the common good. Every year, approximately 8,000 game officials and 50,000-plus administrators and coaches at over 1,500 middle, junior and senior high schools voluntarily pool their efforts daily for the operations of the MHSAA's competitive extracurricular interscholastic athletic program.

An important responsibility of membership in the Association is the operation of the hundreds of District, Regional and Final level tournaments by school administrators who serve as the site managers for these games.

The behind the scenes work of these individuals and their staffs make sure that tournament competition is a memorable experience for the participants.
